Thanks for your interest in our special Christmas-time menu, specifically designed for gatherings for work or families or groups of friends during the festive month, in our cosy chilled-out country inn and restaurant.

In order to keep the price as low as we can for this superb quality and choice, we will require a pre-order for each group and the menu is only available to pre-booked parties of 4 or more with a pre-order.

To reserve a table during this time, please call us on 01254 826227 and we will forward a pre-order sheet which we will require for your party

There is a facility for your party to be completely private in one of our dining rooms, for often no or little cost depending on the size of your group.

Please contact us for further details.
